

CAR BEEP THREAT

On January 17, 2017 the extortionist racketeer Republican city councilman of Centennial Colorado threatened to signal that he had me under surveillance by emitting short car horn beeps, coughing, people wearing red or carrying something red, people entering online servers I was active on and mentioning what I ate that day or what I said in private.

He threatened to then have me prosecuted for 'lewd acts' and 'indecent exposure' for sex and/or masturbation which might occurred in private based on the fact that these acts took place with the knowledge that his illegal surveillance was taking place. If I reported him he threatened to 'destroy' me, seize our bank accounts, and to spoof my phone number to send videos of me masturbating to children .

All of these incidents constitute overt acts in accordance with insurance fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to commit arson, conspiracy to infiltrate government computer systems, conspiracy to commit illegal wire tapping, election fraud conspiracy, mail fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to contribute to the delinquency of a minor, conspiracy to manufacture a controlled substance which killed 68 Americans and hospitalized over 2800 more in 2019/2020 via Vitamin E added to THC extract Vape products. All of these things were among over 130 threats made on January 17, 2017

I imagined this murder of 'a man with six kids who lives in an apartment' that was threatened to be lent the house behind mine in order to fabricate child insurance fraud victims/witnesses? I imagined this 'volunteer police' car threatened to be bought by the stalker for the city police which would then be used to stalk us and write up false claims? I imagined being pulled over by those same police 'for swerving' so they could put a thumbprint on the rear of the car as threatened. The vehicle which would later be damaged and then claimed to have left the scene of an accident per those threats? I imagined this leak in the plumbing in the underground garage that was threatened to be used to claim 'likely disturbed asbestos'? I imagined this exposed and damaged insulation in the underground garage that was threatened to be claimed as 'likely disturbed asbestos'? I imagined this 'confetti' of shredded documents that was threatened to be blamed on me? I imagined this blood on the door that was threatened to be used to initiate an inspection by the stalker's people for the purpose of building an insurance fraud case? I imagined this broken doorstop that was threatened to create a city code violation of 'staircase in disrepair' as part of building that insurance fraud case? I imagined being followed by white PSC vehicles that where threatened by the Republican to be 'his [One] [Two] I imagined this material smudged between the cracks of only a few of the flooring panels that was threatened to be placed there and to return positive when tested for asbestos? I imagined this baby on the ground that was threatened to be exposed to asbestos? I imagined this census worker showing up the day after a sewage odor was produced in my apartment, both occurring the in exact sequenced as threatened four years yearlier? I imagined this online harassment occurring after threats were made online to kill President Biden? I imagined being notified by reddit of my posts being upvoted as threatened by the extortionist? I imagined police being called onto my property after an SUV was slammed into a tree out front? I imagined this apartment fire , 'that was ruled accidental' and the building condemned for asbestos exactly as threatened on January 17, 2017? I imagined 68 people dying and over 2800 being hospitalized in 2019/2020 for Vitamin E in TCH vape extracts threatened on January 17, 2017? I imagined this game which is suspected of money laundering whose name, premise, source of content, developer name and spelling of that name, and the exact price the item was sold for was precisely described to me by a 'heavy metal dude' on December 11, 2018 per threats made to tie me to a fraud in a video games that were made on January 17, 2017? I imagined this content for Blender game engine released by a guy who followed me around Game Developers Conference 2018 , content exactly as I described it, all according to threats to 'benefit' me in this conspiracy that were made on January 17, 2017? I imagined asbestos being 'smeared above the garage door' while I was at that conference exactly as threatened on January 17, 2017? I imagined $7,000 being stolen from my bank account as threatened? I imagined my spouse losing their job in retaliation for telling people about the Republican's conspiracy per threats made five years earlier?? I imagined this guy running for Arapahoe county Commissioner exactly as he threatened to do as an overt act in accordance with conspiracy of insurance fraud, election fraud, arson, murder, infiltration of government networks, and threats to government property?" FOLLOWED BY BEEP from back alley

He threatened that if I complained about the odor the property manager would do nothing about it. He threatened that the maintenance man would live in the apartment below us and complaints agains this person would pile up to create a civil harassment lawsuit against us. He threatened that if I did not report the odor then he would cause a fire in the building from a marijuana grow in an apartment that was rented in our name via forged lease agreement. He threatened the property manager would do nothing about marijuana odor complaints. The extortionist had threatened to gain entry to our apartment via a claim of a leak so that his co-conspirators could: a) claim that there was an 'odor' b) claim to have seen evidence of asbestos contamination. He threatened to put blood on the walls to signal his 'inspector' to test the wall paint/surfacing which would reveal asbestos. He threatened to damage the drywall/paint to cause the walls to need repair/repainting which would also require testing to result in the fraudulent asbestos results. May 2021 after suspicious noises including very loud hammer like bangs were heard after midnight for several nights in the roof/attic or crawlspace above partment a leak developed from the roof, dripping water through the wall and ceiling in the bathroom of apartment 307 5591 S. Nevada Street Littleton Colorado. The maintenance man was refused entry because the leak was in the roof. March 6, 2021 a very strong eye burning fresh marijuana smell flooded apartment 307 from below via that hallway bathroom. June 17 ,2021 the property manager and maintenance man again tried to gain entry claiming there was a leak from our apartment, there was no such leak. Per insurance fraud conspiracy extortion on January 17, 2017 insulation around pipes in the underground garage was damaged to reveal the leaking pipe, and white crusty material was left on the garage floor. The extortionist had threatened to CLAIM that this was 'likely asbestos'. May 23, 2022 after suspicious noises including very loud hammer like bangs were heard after midnight for several nights in the roof/attic or crawlspace above partment a leak developed from the roof, dripping water through the wall and ceiling in the bathroom of apartment 307 5591 S. Nevada Street Littleton Colorado. 5PM July 13 2022 a very strong eye burning fresh marijuana smell flooded apartment 307 from below via that hallway bathroom. 5:03PM July 13 2022 the distinct odor of a tobacco rolled marijuana blunt burning was smelled. Every thirty minutes until 1:11AM July 14 2022 a new wave of burned marijuana could be smelled. 5PM July 14 2022 once again, a very strong eye burning fresh marijuana smell flooded apartment 307 from below via that hallway bathroom. The property manager Susan Hunt has been informed 3 times and exactly per insurance fraud conspiracy extortion of January 17, 2017 1. the odor comes from below our apartment. 2. the maintenance man lives in that apartment. 3. the property manager refuses to do anything about it." CAR BEEP THREAT

On January 17, 2017 the extortionist racketeer Republican city councilman of Centennial Colorado threatened to signal that he had me under surveillance by emitting short car horn beeps, coughing, people wearing red or carrying something red, people entering online servers I was active on and mentioning what I ate that day or what I said in private.

He threatened to then have me prosecuted for 'lewd acts' and 'indecent exposure' for sex and/or masturbation which might occurred in private based on the fact that these acts took place with the knowledge that his illegal surveillance was taking place. If I reported him he threatened to 'destroy' me, seize our bank accounts, and to spoof my phone number to send videos of me masturbating to children .

All of these incidents constitute overt acts in accordance with insurance fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to commit arson, conspiracy to infiltrate government computer systems, conspiracy to commit illegal wire tapping, election fraud conspiracy, mail fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to contribute to the delinquency of a minor, conspiracy to manufacture a controlled substance which killed 68 Americans and hospitalized over 2800 more in 2019/2020 via Vitamin E added to THC extract Vape products. All of these things were among over 130 threats made on January 17, 2017

#199: 03/24/2022 6:14 PM Make a report to Steam: Entered Killing Floor server, made a statement "I find marijuana is overated. As are the beatles and avocado", All three items I discussed in my kitchen just two hours earlier. This type of contact is exactly as threatened to signal that I am under illegal surveillance and that my new Steam account had been identified by an insurance fraud racketeer on January 17, 2017 This user waited for Trader clock to end and match to start, enemies to spawn, then disconnected. This was threatened by the insurance fraud racketeer to 'benefit' me in his conspiracy, which includes mass murder of 68 Americans from Vitamin E in THC Extracts and Money laundering through the $199 Strike Mole game banned by Steam, which was conspired to be sold on Steam for that ludicrous amount by the named developer "Lies spelled L I Z E" at Arapahoe Community College on December 8, 2018 by the president of the Arapahoe Community College Game Design Guild." : BEEP from back alley.

#192: 02/18/2022 3:03 PM I read this online: "Red and black definitely colors they wear. These people are part of the emergency management system which is triggered like in natural disasters. That network has been infiltrated by organized crime and corrupt law enforcement. Google your local county or city "emergency management plan" and you will see public documents that include public and private organizations. This is the local InfraGard. I have talked to other TIs who push for change on national level like NSA or DHS. Never gonna happen. Courts routinely protect federal agencies and surveillance power. But local corrupt officials do not have enough power. They hate me more and more because i name names like the Baltimore City office of emergency management that targeted me illegally using corrupt employees to fabricate evidence to justify illegal surveillance. These people operate like terrorist cells waiting to be activated into service. They live around you and break into homes, track cars, and harass and abuse. They have sick rapists and criminals who dupe the "community safety" sheeple. I am in a new town and these local fucks are too stupid and corrupt to question the validity of lies started at one of the most corrupt police departments in the country." BEEP BEEP from back alley.

The extortionist threatened the only way to escape his conspiracy was to recognize the voice lines from games I played or 'was likely to play' spoken by his co-conspirators and to kick them off the property or to leave the activity I was involved in, this his people could sabotage any activity such as attending college classes by simply speaking lines from games.

#145: 08/30/2021 8:50 PM I was looking at the game page for Aragami 2, a co-op sequel to the original title Aragami, which was brought up in discussion by Javier Baylon at the Arapahoe Community College Game Design Guild in the fall of 2018. The game came up in conversation because I said that I always wanted to make a game where teleportation was the main combat mechanic, copying the ink black puff of smoke style of the Nightcrawler character from the X-men movies. Javier then said that it had been done in Arigami. Javier Baylon: 1. played the part of mentioning games, ie, to enticed me to play them, at every Game Design Guild Meeting he attended. Within a day or so after Javier discussed a game at the meetings the other members of the Game Design Guild would repeat phrases from those games at every meeting (per the extortionist's threats), although it was up to three years later that I played those games and recognized those quotes. 2. stalked me in Guild Wars 2 & How To Survive 2, both games he had discussed at Arapahoe Community College Game Design Guild 3. sabotaged the Game Design Guild project by taking the mantle of lead programmer than then promptly doing absolutely no work on the project as well as tying up all of the Game Design Guild's session time in his personal school projects. 4. was a witness to battery on William Griffin by Michael Hawkins & Audrey Vogt and did not report the crime 5. after the battery was committed issued supported for Michael Hawkins to continue to attend the Game Design Guild meetings 6. worked at our the Federal Ave Englewood Colorado King Soopers.

CAR BEEP THREAT

On January 17, 2017 the extortionist racketeer Republican city councilman of Centennial Colorado threatened to signal that he had me under surveillance by emitting short car horn beeps, coughing, people wearing red or carrying something red, people entering online servers I was active on and mentioning what I ate that day or what I said in private.

He threatened to then have me prosecuted for 'lewd acts' and 'indecent exposure' for sex and/or masturbation which might occurred in private based on the fact that these acts took place with the knowledge that his illegal surveillance was taking place. If I reported him he threatened to 'destroy' me, seize our bank accounts, and to spoof my phone number to send videos of me masturbating to children .

All of these incidents constitute overt acts in accordance with insurance fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to commit arson, conspiracy to infiltrate government computer systems, conspiracy to commit illegal wire tapping, election fraud conspiracy, mail fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to contribute to the delinquency of a minor, conspiracy to manufacture a controlled substance which killed 68 Americans and hospitalized over 2800 more in 2019/2020 via Vitamin E added to THC extract Vape products. All of these things were among over 130 threats made on January 17, 2017

#10: 10/12/2020 12:12 PM car horn BEEP from back alley This follows BEEP about 7AM.

#9: 10/10/2020 7:05 PM I went out to the third floor balcony to see if there was any indication of the cigarettes I smelled in the hallway. Outside I smelled wood smoke. When I reached the patio railing there were two short car horn BEEPs exactly as threatened by the extortionist-racketeer to indicate that I was under surveillance by his people.

#8: 10/07/2020 2:16 PM I sit in front of slightly open blinds, car horn BEEPs out in the back alley several times, light taps just like the Extortionist-Racketeer threatened on 01-17-2017. Last night someone logged in and out of Killing Floor very quickly with the name "chicken", indicating they knew what I had for dinner, as per threats made on 01/17/2017.

#7: 10/02/2020 2:13 PM I'm tempted to warn my wife that she's talking too loud on a telephone job interview, I can hear her every word from behind a closed door , across 100 feet of apartment over the throbbering of the air conditioner (not ours), that I was trying to record. I check the peephole on the door, quick BEEP from outside back alley, indicating surveillance. On 01/17/2017 The Extortionist-Racketeer threatened to interview my, wife to get details about her, and then use her own qualifications, and knowledge to take the jobs she wants, then to hire her at, jobs the Extortionist-Racketeer wants her to work for his purposes and to tie her financially to his criminal conspiracies. She eventually gets a management position at CareerArc, a employment services/recruiting agency/website. On 01/17-2017 The Extortionist-Racketeer racketeer had threatened that she was be responsible for hiring his agents would carry out crimes such as embezzlement and violating privacy laws.

CAR BEEP THREAT

On January 17, 2017 the extortionist racketeer Republican city councilman of Centennial Colorado threatened to signal that he had me under surveillance by emitting short car horn beeps, coughing, people wearing red or carrying something red, people entering online servers I was active on and mentioning what I ate that day or what I said in private.

He threatened to then have me prosecuted for 'lewd acts' and 'indecent exposure' for sex and/or masturbation which might occurred in private based on the fact that these acts took place with the knowledge that his illegal surveillance was taking place. If I reported him he threatened to 'destroy' me, seize our bank accounts, and to spoof my phone number to send videos of me masturbating to children .

All of these incidents constitute overt acts in accordance with insurance fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to commit arson, conspiracy to infiltrate government computer systems, conspiracy to commit illegal wire tapping, election fraud conspiracy, mail fraud conspiracy, conspiracy to contribute to the delinquency of a minor, conspiracy to manufacture a controlled substance which killed 68 Americans and hospitalized over 2800 more in 2019/2020 via Vitamin E added to THC extract Vape products. All of these things were among over 130 threats made on January 17, 2017

#5: 10/01/2020 2:25 PM changed my Steam account user name to same name of Extortionist-Racketeer, car horn BEEPs.

#4: 10/01/2020 2:07 PM a short car horn BEEP was heard out in the 'back alley', threatened to be an indication that the Extortionist-Racketeer's people had me under surveillance.

#3: 10/01/2020 2:06 PM Posted about the Vitame in E in THC Extract murder Conspiracy on VICE Channel on Youtube. BEEP from back alley.

#2: 09/23/2020 3:28 PM short car horn BEEP outside from 'the back alley' as per threats made 01/17/2017 that a short car horn BEEP would used to indicate that I am under surveillance by the Extortionist-Racketeer, 'back alley' was another of his key phrases too.

#1: 08/15/2020 8:00 AM Every morning, at different times, when I wake up and am obviously awake there are two short car horn BEEPs indicating that the bedroom is under illegal video surveillance as per threats made by the Extortionist-Racketeer 01-17-2017. Today the BEEP was immediately followed by the rough short cough of the woman in the next apartment who was on her balcony. A cough was threatened by the extortionist to indicate the person was his operative.
